

European Film Festival L'Europe autour de l'Europe

17th edition
From 17 to 31 March 2022

The Festival is pleased to announce that the 17th edition will be held in Paris this spring, from 17 to 31 March 2022.

This year, as usual, we will present 3 competition sections:

- Prix SAUVAGE (9 fiction films unreleased in France);
- Prix PRESENT (10 recently produced documentaries);
- Prix SAUVAGE CORTO (a selection short films from all over Europe).

This year, L'Europe autour de l'Europe's program the Mostra IMAGINAIRES COLONIAUX has been selected to be part of the France-Portugal Season. Conceived by writer and director Ariel de Bigault, this program features a selection of Portuguese films, some of which come from the archives of the Cinemateca portuguesa. Covering more than a century of Portuguese cinema, the program of this Mostra is composed of some twenty films, most of which have never been shown in France.

For this edition 2022, the Festival will also show an exceptional selection of great cinematographic classical films screened in 35mm as part of our THEMA section, the theme of which this year is Black & White.

The TRIBUTE section will be dedicated to the great Georgian filmmaker Otar Iosseliani with an original selection of his early black and white films.

The screenings will take place in the Festival's traditional partner cinemas and cultural centres, such as the Saint-André des Arts, the Jérôme Seydoux-Pathé Foundation, the 7 Parnassiens, the Lincoln and the Maison du Portugal.

The full program will be announced on our website on February 28, 2022.
